

ETERNAL WALL OF ANSWERED PRAYER

Terms & Conditions

We are grateful for all the answered prayers submitted to us and carefully consider how they can help to promote, raise awareness, and increase understanding of the Christian faith. It may not be possible for us to share all the submissions we receive, mainly where they are inconsistent with our purpose or might prevent individuals from developing their own personal faith.

We have the right (at our discretion) to decline to publish, suspend, remove, or redact any answered prayer submitted to us, so as to comply with the legal and/or moral obligations placed upon us.

Published answered prayers will be representative of topics, geographies and time spans so that no theme, region, or period of history will dominate. In this event, we may choose to reject, hold back and delay any answered prayer that relates to any issues, geographies, or periods of history being over-represented.

We appreciate that each answered prayer is deeply personal and we thank you for taking the time to share your experience with us.
